TRUCORP SMARTMAN CPR X

TRUCORP® & SMARTMAN®/V4EMS INC

TruCorp® (Belfast, Northern Ireland) is a World Leader in the production of Anatomically Correct Airway Management, Emergency Skill and Surgical Skill Trainers.

SmartMan/V4EMS Inc.(California USA) is a pioneering MedTech company, leading in Educational Skills based medical training built on their proprietary high fidelity sensors and in-house software. They blend sophisticated high fidelity manikins with accurate, easy to understand, at-a-glance colour feedback and data analysis.

TRUCORP SMARTMAN CPR X

With a shared focus of bringing together the benefits of TruCorp's anatomically correct Advanced Airway Skill Trainers with SmartMan's real time digital sensor based Training Manikins, the result will be an exceptional CPR with Advanced Airway, Pneumothorax to needle decompression Training product. It will provide instantaneous feedback and realistic events which result from trainer performance.

According to SmartMan CEO, Eric Chappell PhD; the proprietary strengths of each company will extend Learner Knowledge and enhance Skills, producing learners who are both more confident and more competent to perform skills during a real Life-Threatening Emergency Situation.

The goal of Training Practitioners on how to enhance skills as they are being performed on the "simulated patient" will further Research into the Science of Emergency Response as it moves into real world implementation and practice.
